Subject: Florida's assumption rule - comments due thursday

The region and HQ is reviewing Florida's assumption rule. I had a few comments, mainly questions and potential edits for clarity.

Ex. 5 AC/DP

Ex. 5 AC/DP

We have a call with the region at 10 and we'll discuss whether these comments should be provided formally or just discussed with Florida. There are a lot of questions in the document so it may make sense to have a conversation with Florida instead of formally submitting the comments. Florida's comment period ends Thursday. Do you all think we should send this to David for review? As I said, I don't see anything I'm going to fall on my sword over. The region or Kathy may have additional comments and we'll learn more at 10.

Thanks,
Alexis
